TSI Appoints New Director of Purchasing and Site Services

January 4, 2008, North Hampton, NH—TSI Group, Inc. is pleased to announce the appointment of John Darmody as the director of purchasing and site services effective immediately.

John's primary role is to lead all purchasing, discretionary spending and streamline site services for all of the seven TSI business units. In collaboration with Brazonics senior management John will also take a lead role in project support and implementation of new initiatives at the plant level. Greg Tucker, CEO of TSI, states, "John will help lead an entire enterprise effort to create a more strategic alliance with our suppliers in order to ensure that we continue to offer our customers industry leading solutions and services."

John has extensive experience in all aspects of site services management for large corporations. Prior to joining TSI, John held the position of operations manager for Wyeth Biotech where he led all the day-to-day site operations and vendor relationships for the Andover, MA campus. Before that, John was the food services director and general manager for Creative Gourmet, a division of Marriott / Sodexo Services, where he received several awards such as manager of the year and divisional sales award.

John holds Bachelor of Science degrees in business studies and hotel and catering management from the Galway Mayo Institute of Technology in Ireland.
